

Colonel Eric A. Doerrer (Class 3-64)

Colonel Doerrer joined the Army on March 21, 1963. He graduated from the Artillery Officer Candidate School at Fort Sill, Oklahoma on March 3, 1964 and was commissioned a 2LT.

He received a B.S from Cornell University. He is a graduate of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College and a distinguished graduate of the Reserve Component National Security Course.

Colonel Doerrer held a variety of command and staff positions in the Continental United States, Europe and Panama, including Commander, 6302nd Infantry Division Headquarters Reserve Training Unit, Pasadena, California; Senior Civil Affairs (CA) Officer, Headquarters, U.S. Army Southern Command, Panama; Assistant G5, Headquarters, 351 CA Command, Mountain View California; and Assistant G4, Headquarters, 8th Infantry Division (Mechanized) Bad Kreuznach, Germany.