GENERAL

REMARKS: I consider the time I spent in the U.S. Army the most important and formative of my life. My short stint in Korea as a 22-year old platoon leader gave me a different world view. My 25 years in the Army Reserve gave me an education about how the Army works and an enduring appreciation of the vital roll that the Armed Forces play in the overall success of our great country.
