

1st Armored Brigade Combat Team, 3rd Infantry Division 🤗 February 16, 2018 - 🞯

The 3rd Infantry Division had 13 Medal of Honor recipients from the Korean War. 2LT Darwin Kyle was posthumously awarded his for actions on this date in 1951.

During fighting near Hill 185, 2LT Kyle twice led assaults against fortified enemy positions, killing at least seven enemy soldiers with his bayonet, rifle, and grenades.

2LT Kyle, who received both a Bronze Star and Silver Star during World War II, began the Korean War as a Master Sergeant but received a battlefield commission several months before he was killed.

Camp Kyle, Korea, which closed in 2005, was named after 2LT Kyle.

Remember...

Darwin Keith Kyle 1921-1951

"He was the bravest man I ever saw."

Sgt. James Yeomans

Darwin Keith Kyle was born June 1, 1921, in Jenkins, Kentucky, to Charles and Pearl Keffer Kyle. Darwin's mother was born and raised in Midway, West Virginia. She and her husband moved to Jenkins during World War I where Charles worked for a brief time. It was during their stay in Kentucky that Darwin, who was called "Gus," was born. The family returned to West Virginia when Gus was very young, and he grew up and received his education in Midway, located in the Big Coal River area of Boone County.

On July 15, 1944, Gus Kyle married Betty Alice Totten, and the couple became the parents of two daughters, Donna Kay and Nancy Carol.

Marriage Certificate for Darwin and Betty Kyle

Gus Kyle's military service spanned both World War II and Korea. During World War II, he was credited with single-handedly carrying out an operation in which several tanks were destroyed and which saved the lives of several comrades. He was awarded the Silver Star and the Bronze Star.

Hungnam during December 1950 evacuation Courtesy Naval Historical Center

After hostilities broke out in Korea, Master Sgt. Darwin Kyle, with Company K, 7th Infantry Regiment, 3rd Infantry Division, proved his valor again. In December 1950, Kyle directed removal of the wounded from the Hungnam beachhead while under fire and was recognized for his gallantry. He received a battlefield commission as a lieutenant, his lieutenant bars being presented by Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgeway. He also was awarded the Bronze Star and the Silver Star. On February 16, 1951, Lieutenant Kyle was leading an attack on Hill 185, and during this charge his platoon came under heavy enemy fire. At one point Kyle charged the position and was killed by submachine fire. For his gallantry and self-sacrifice Lt. Darwin Kyle was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor, the citation stating: When his platoon had been pinned down by intense fire, he completely exposed himself to move among and encourage his men to continue the advance against enemy forces strongly entrenched on Hill 185. Inspired by his courageous leadership, the platoon resumed the advance but was again pinned down when an enemy machinegun opened fire, wounding six of the men. Lieutenant Kyle immediately charged the hostile emplacement alone, engaged the crew in hand-to-hand combat, killing all three. Continuing on toward the objective, his platoon suddenly received an intense automatic-weapons fire from a well-concealed hostile position on its right flank. Again leading his men in a daring bayonet charge against this position, firing his carbine and throwing grenades, Lieutenant Kyle personally destroyed four of the enemy before he was killed by a burst from an enemy submachinegun.

The body of Lt. Darwin "Gus' Kyle was returned to the United States and on September 27, 1951, was buried in Sunset Memorial Park in South Charleston.

In 1955, a new school in South Charleston was named Kyle Elementary School in his honor. In May 1996 a bridge in Madison was dedicated in memory of Darwin Kyle with a ceremony attended by his sister Mable Foster and brother William.

West Virginia Archives and History welcomes any additional information that can be provided about these veterans, including photographs, family names, letters and other relevant personal history.

Darwin Kyle

Medal of Honor recipient Darwin Keith Kyle (June 1, 1918-February 16, 1951) was born in Jenkins, Kentucky, and raised in Midway, Boone County. He enlisted in the Army in 1939. During World War II, he fought in France and Germany, earning both the Silver and Bronze stars.

After his discharge in August 1945, Kyle returned to West Virginia. He reenlisted in the Army in July 1947 and was assigned to the 6th Infantry Division in Korea as part of the occupation force. When the Korean War broke out in June 1950, Master Sergeant Kyle was assigned to Fort Devens, Massachusetts. In September 1950, Kyle's unit, Company K, 7th Infantry Regiment, 3d Infantry Division, was sent to Korea. During the retreat at the port city of Hungnam in December 1950, Kyle was credited with moving injured men to safety while under gunfire. For his heroism and leadership abilities, Kyle received a battlefield promotion to second lieutenant in January 1951.

On February 16, 1951, the new platoon leader was given orders to remove Chinese defenders from their position near Kamil-ni northeast of Suwon. In an intense exchange between the American and Chinese forces, Kyle took out one emplacement with a grenade and killed the three-man crew. He killed four enemy soldiers in hand-to-hand combat until he was shot and killed.

Kyle was buried in Sunset Memorial Park Cemetery in South Charleston on September 27, 1951. His widow, Betty Kyle, and two daughters, received his posthumous Medal of Honor on January 16, 1952. A school in South Charleston was named in his honor in 1955, and in May 1996, a bridge at Madison was named the Lt. Darwin K. Kyle Memorial Bridge.

I -- AWARD OF THE SOLDIER'S MEDAL -- By direction of the president under the provisions of the act of congress approved 2 July 1926 (WD Bulletin 8, 1926), and pursuant to authority contained in Army Regulations 600-45, the Soldier's Medal for heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy is awarded the following-named officer:

SECOND LIEUTENANT (then MASTER SERGEANT) DARWIN K. KYLE, 02262608. Infantry, Company "K", 7th Infantry, 3d Infantry Division, United States Army, On 24 December 1950, during the final stages of the evacuation of the beachhead of Hungnam, Korea, a tremendous explosion of an ammunition dump sprayed the area with shrapnel and white phosphorous. Many of the men boarding landing crafts were wounded and all were stunned by the explosion and the concussion that followed. Lieutenant Kyle, quickly regaining his senses and with utter disregard for his own personal safety, restored order and directed the removal of the wounded. One of the landing crafts had been hit and the rudder mechanism completely destroyed. Fearlessly, Lieutenant Kyle returned to the beachhead inferno to find tools and materials. Constantly endangered by succeeding explosions, he was able to effect emergency repairs and guide the craft away from the flaming beach, shortly before the beach was rocked by an explosion which would have destroyed the craft if it had remained. The courage, initiative, and concern for his comrades displayed by Lieutenant Kyle saved many lives and reflect great credit upon himself and the military service. Entered the military service from the State of West Virginia.

Private Kyle, observing that six of our supporting tanks had been disabled by direct fire of the enemy, quickly grabbed a rocket launcher and crawled toward the enemy emplacement. From an advantageous position he commanded direct observation on the hostile strongpoint. He accurately fired three rounds into the enemy emplacement, knocking out the gun and killing the crew. As a result of this action, tanks were able to enter the town and the company was materially assisted in its subsequent withdrawal. #MedalOfHonor Darwin "Gus" Keith Kyle was born on June 1, 1921 in Jenkins, Kentucky. Kyle joined the Army from Racine, West Virginia in November 1939.

A Master Sergeant at the beginning of the Korean War, "Gus" received a battlefield commission and the Soldier's Medal during the evacuation of Marines from Hungnam.

On February 16, 1951, near Kamil-ni, Korea, when Kyle's platoon had been pinned down by intense fire, he completely exposed himself to move among and encourage his men to continue the advance against enemy forces strongly entrenched on Hill 185. Inspired by his courageous leadership, the platoon resumed the advance but was again pinned down when an enemy machine gun opened fire, wounding 6 of the men.

Kyle immediately charged the hostile emplacement alone, engaged the crew in hand-to-hand combat, killing all 3. Continuing on toward the objective, his platoon suddenly received an intense automatic-weapons fire from a well-concealed hostile position on its right flank. Again leading his men in a daring bayonet charge against this position, firing his carbine and throwing grenades, Kyle personally destroyed 4 of the enemy before he was killed by a burst from an enemy submachine gun.

Darwin Kyle is buried at the Sunset Memorial Park in South Charleston, West Virginia.

The U.S. Army named a camp after Kyle, Camp Kyle, near Uijeongbu, South Korea.

Visit the museum and see a tribute to Kyle's brave actions. The Hall of Valor pays tribute to American Infantrymen who have received the Medal of Honor, our nation's highest award for bravery.
