

US ARMY BIOGRAPHY

LTC Vollney B. Corn, Jr., graduated as Honor Graduate from OCS Class 18-66. His first duty assignment was Platoon Leader of a Duster M-42/Quad-50 PLT, Fort Bliss, Texas. In 1967 he joined the 1st Cavalry Division in Vietnam and served as Forward Observer, Battery Fire Direction Officer, and Battalion Fire Direction Officer with 2/19th DivArty. He returned to command the Drill Sergeant Academy at Fort Bliss and after attending OAC 3-70, commanded A Battery, 1/42d in Korea. He served three years as an instructor at Fort Bliss and attended C&GSC in 1976. Upon completion of CGSC, he was assigned to HQ Landjut (NATO), Germany. He served as the Special Weapons Officer on the Landjut Corps for two years, and was reassigned to the NATO school, Oberamergau as a special weapons instructor. He returned to CONUS in 1981 and became the S-3, 1/78th Artillery, 2d Armored Div. Upon promotion to LTC he held the following jobs within the Division: Deputy G-3, BTMS Chief; DivArty S-3; DivArty XO; and subsequently commanded 1st Battalion, 3d FA Regiment, 2d Armored Division. Upon completion of command he attended the Army War College, Carlisle, PA, Class of 1988.