

BRIGADIER GENERAL JOHN L. ENRIGHT

CLASS 3B-68

Brigadier General Enright attended the U.S. Army Rotary Wing Aviator Course after graduating from Officer Candidate School and then served a tour in Vietnam. He was released from active duty in 1971 and joined the Rhode Island Army National Guard.

Brigadier General Enright has completed a variety of courses to include: OH-58A qualification and IP course, UH-1H IP course, AH-1F qualification and IP course, Instrument Examiner Course, NVG IP course, Resident Command and General Staff College, Aviation Safety Officer course, and the US Army War College.

Brigadier General Enright has held an assortment of important command and staff positions within the National Guard to include: Commander, Headquarters and Headquarters Battery, 2nd Battalion, 103rd FA Group; Platoon Leader/Operations Officer, Troop D 1/26th Cav; Commander 1st/126th Aviation Regiment, Commander 56th Troop Command; Staff Officer, Headquarters State Area Command, Deputy Chief of Staff, Operations, Rhode Island Army National Guard and Chief of Staff, Rhode Island Army National Guard. He currently holds the position of Assistant Adjutant General, Rhode Island Army National Guard.

Brigadier General Enright is a Master Army Aviator with 6,980 hours flight time. His awards include: the Bronze Star Medal; Meritorious Service Medal (three Oak Leaf Clusters); Air Medal (twenty-two Oak Leaf Clusters); Army Commendation Medal; Air Force Commendation Medal; Army Achievement Medal; Army Reserve Component Achievement Medal; GWOT Service Medal; Humanitarian Service Medal; Armed Forces Reserve Medal.