After his service as commander of the 227th FA Group, he commanded the 53rd Infantry Brigade. He was promoted to Brigadier General in 1980 and in 1982 as a Major General he became a full-time soldier as Adjutant General of Florida. Based in St. Augustine, Florida he served ten years in that position during a challenging period with the Mariel Boatlift, a statewide trucker's strike, hurricanes and riots. At age 64 he became President of the National Guard Association of the United States (NGAUS) in Washington, DC.
