A good man and fine Officer

Was in OCS Class 21-67 with him. We were cube mates. Still have a picture of him and his mother (?) outside the Lawton Holiday Inn at graduation.
A good man, gone way too soon.

James and I served together at Ft. Sill OK. I was also a LT of Artillery. He was a great guy. I just learned of his death two days ago. Please accept my deepest sympathy.

Today I Remembered

For some reason I thought of Jim today. I served with him as a 1LT in the 2nd of the 1st Artillery at Fort Sill. He was a fine man. I have not forgotten him or the many others like him.
