National Archives & Records Administration War Department Files MAJ Frank M. Holcomb

Class 50-43 ID: 01177004

Branch of Service: U.S. Army Home State: Illinois Status: KIA January 30, 1945

Killed in action while serving as a liaison pilot with Headquarters Battery, 35th Field Artillery Group. He was shot down over France.

AJ. FRANK M. HOLCOMB, 29, who was reported missing in action, was killed Jan. 30 in France, the war department has notified his widow, Katherine, 7159 S. Michigan av. A liaison pilot with the field artillery, he served 16 months in Africa, Italy, and France. Other survivors are his mother, Mrs. O. E. Schepman, 942 E. 80th st., and a sister. He had been awarded the bronze star and air medal.

Buried in Beverly Cemetery, Blue Island, Illinois