

Artillery OCS Hall of Fame

Major Wulf R. Lindenau Class 1-66

Major Lindenau was born in Memel, East Prussia, Germany near the end of World War II. After the war, his mother married a U.S. Army Colonel, and he and his siblings became US citizens. He was schooled in German and American schools, graduated from Heidelberg High School.

He joined the U.S. Army and after graduating from OCS he completed two tours of duty in Vietnam, an assignment as a Professor at West Point, and several assignments as an Intelligence Officer. He retired after 20 1/2 years of military service.

Major Lindenau retired as a GS-15 after a second career of 23 years in civilian Government service with the Treasury Department, the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) and the General Services Administration (GSA). His civilian career began as a Security Officer with the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Washington, D.C., and subsequent service with USAID, where he was the Agency's Director of Physical Security for all USAID missions worldwide. His U.S. Government service culminated with GSA as the National Director of Operations for the Federal Protective Service (FPS) and then Director of FPS - the Police Force responsible for the National Capital Region.

After retirement he continued his life-long outstanding service to the nation with organizations supporting veterans. He served as the Commander of the American Legion, Washington, D.C., Commander of the Army / Navy Union, Washington, D.C., and Commander General of the Military Order of Foreign Wars.

Major Lindenau's decorations include the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star Medal and the Combat Infantryman Badge.