

COLONEL ALLAN G. LITTLE COMMANDER
324TH SUPPORT GROUP
FORT CLAYTON, PANAMA

Colonel Allan G. Little was born in Rosebud, Texas, and attended public schools there and in San Antonio. He enlisted in the Regular Army in August 1951, was trained as an aircraft mechanic, and served in Germany with Headquarters, VII Corps, where he was the aircraft crew chief for three successive Corps Commanders. He achieved the grade of Sergeant E-5 prior to being appointed as a warrant officer in 1955 in the aircraft maintenance career field. Assignments as a warrant included Fort Eustis, Korea, and Fort Devens. In 1959 as CW2, he attended Artillery OCS and was commissioned as 2LT in the Transportation Corps. Various staff and command assignments then followed at Fort Sill, Germany, Fort Eustis, Vietnam, Korea, Fort Lee, Fort Hood, Fort Bragg, and Fort Bliss, as well as other locations.

Along the way, he has attended the Transportation Advanced Course, Logistics Executives Development Course, completed the Command and General Staff College, the Air War College Corresponding Studies, and served a Training with Industry tour in Transportation Management with the Puerto Rico Ports Authority. He has a BS in Business from the University of Nebraska at Omaha and MA in Business from Webster College in St Louis.

Colonel Little's previous command assignments include serving as Company Commander aboard the USNS Corpus Christi Bay in Vietnam and Battalion Commander of the Operational Support Battalion, 1st COSCOM, Fort Bragg, NC. He was the Senior Aide-de-Camp to General of the Army Omar N. Bradley for the last 2 and 1/2 years of General Bradley's life. Most recently he has served as Assistant Chief of Staff Materiel, 3d Support Command; Chief, Supply and Maintenance Division, ODCSLOG, HQ USAREUR/7A; and Chief of Staff, 13th SUPCOM.

His awards include the Legion of Merit (10LC), Bronze Star (10LC), Meritorious Service Medal (50LC), Joint Service Commendation Medal, Army Commendation Medal, and Army Good Conduct Medal.