

Colonel Walter N. Moore, Jr., Artillery OCS Class 48-43

Colonel Moore was born in Kansas City, Missouri, October 23, 1919, the son of Walter N. & Lucy Grace (Waggener) Moore, and was a Missouri resident until entering the military in 1941.

He received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Central Methodist College, Fayette, MO in 1949, and in 1968 received a Master of Arts Degree in Journalism from the University of Wisconsin.

Colonel Moore entered the United States Army in October 1941 as a private. He rose to the rank of Captain and commanded a Field Artillery Battery in the 97th Division Artillery in WWII combat and on occupation duty. He graduated from the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College and rose to the rank of Colonel in 1966. He served two Pentagon tours, the last with the Office, Chief of Information, Dept. of the Army, and was the Public Affairs Officer for the United Nations Command, U.S. Forces Korea, and Eighth U.S. Army, during the period of 1968-1970. In his last assignment, he served as the Commandant of the Defense Information School at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis. He retired in 1974, following 33 years of active and inactive service.

In 1975, He moved to South Bend where he was appointed Dean of the South Bend Institute of Indiana Vocational Technical College, on Feb. 7, 1975. In Aug. 1975 he was appointed as Regional Vice President. He retired in 1979.

U.S., Select Military Registers, 1862-1985 for Walter N Moore
Army > 1972, Volume I
MOORE WALTER N JR		AD	COL	66 11 09	41 10 17	COL	71 10 23	07	46 10 23	2	5	19 10 23