

Artillery OCS Hall of Fame

Colonel
Bert T. Robison
Class R1-67

Colonel Robison's initial assignment after OCS was to Headquarters Battery, 1st Battalion, 222nd Field Artillery in the Utah Army National Guard. His next assignment was platoon leader, 625th Military Police Company followed by service as Executive Officer Battery B, 1st Battalion, 145th Field Artillery.

After assignment to the Inactive Ready Reserve Control Group, he became an active member of the U.S. Army Reserve with duty as Motor Officer, Headquarters Battery 6th Battalion, 83rd Field Artillery. He then served three years in command of a Battery in the Battalion prior to assuming duty as the Battalion S-1. After attending the Field Artillery Advanced Course, he returned to the 6th Battalion, 83rd Field Artillery as the Battalion S-1 followed by three years as the Battalion Operations Officer.

Colonel Robison then served as Training Officer, Headquarters, 96th U.S. Army Reserve Command prior to his returning to the 6th Battalion, 83rd Field Artillery, first as Executive Officer and later Battalion Commander.

He then served with the 96th U.S. Army Reserve Command as Chief of the Mobilization Division, then Deputy Chief of Staff, Information Management and culminated his career as the Deputy Chief of Staff, Force Development.

Colonel Robison's decorations include the Legion of Merit, the Meritorious Service Medal and the Army Commendation Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters.