

National Archives & Records Administration
War Department Files

CAPT Victor H. Schulte

Class 48-43

ID: 01176502

Branch of Service: U.S. Army

Hometown: Hillsdale, MI

Status: DNB 9 Dec 1944

Served with the 273rd Field Artillery Battalion of the Third Army. Lost his life when a command car, in which he was riding, went off a blown-out bridge under blackout conditions near Nancy, France.

June 10, 1945 LINCOLN SUNDAY JOURNAL AND STAR:

American Lutheran Church, 24th and U, will hold a memorial service Sunday in honor of Capt. Victor H. Schulte who was killed in France last Dec. 9. He was buried in a military cemetery in Lorraine, France. Captain Schulte, a 1933 graduate of Lincoln high school, went overseas in June 1944. At the time of his death he was reconnaissance and intelligence officer with the 273rd field artillery battalion assigned to the Third army. He was engaged in newspaper work in Nebraska, South Dakota and Michigan, prior to entering the service in June 1941. In January 1942 he was graduated from the Field Artillery School at Fort Sill and was promoted to first lieutenant in June the following year, while stationed at Camp Bale, Calif. He received his captaincy in June 1944, shortly before going overseas.

Buried in Wyuka Cemetery, Lincoln, Nebraska
Plot: Sec-24SC Sp-231