

Colonel Martin Seigel (Class 2-60)

Colonel Martin Siegel enlisted in the Army as a Chemical Lab Technician. He was commissioned a Second Lieutenant upon graduation from the Artillery Officer Candidate School Class 2-60 on March 1, 1960.

During his career he served in the active Army and the Army Reserve in numerous positions including Operations Officer and Adjutant at Fort McClellan, Alabama; Chemical Company Commander at Camp Kilmer, New Jersey; Army Reserve School Instructor; Division Chemical Officer for the Control Groups at Fort Stewart, Georgia and Fort Polk, Louisiana; Chemical School Battalion Commander at Fort McClellan; and numerous Chemical Corps related positions at the Pentagon, culminating as the Individual Mobilization Augmentee (IMA) Deputy for Nuclear, Biological and Chemical, Office of the Secretary of the Army.

His decorations include the Army Reserve Components Achievements Medal and the Army Reserve Overseas Service Ribbon.