

MAJOR GENERAL JIMMIE JAYE WELLS FORT BENNING 1981

Major General Wells was assigned as commanding general of the 75th Training Command, Houston, Texas in July 2011. Prior to this assignment, he served as the Commander of the Civil Support Command, Kaiserslautern, Germany and Deputy Commanding General of the 21st Theater Sustainment Command. He previously served as the Commander of the 1st Battle Command Training Brigade, 75th Mission Command Training Division.

As a 1LT, he served as a team leader for a nuclear support team and as the Operations and Intelligence Officer of the Weapons Support Detachment in Korea. He then became a Fire Support Officer for the 2nd Battalion, 505th Infantry, 82nd Airborne Division Artillery participating in Operation Urgent Fury, Grenada. He later joined the 108th Division and served as an Infantry Company Commander. In 1992, he joined the 90th Regional Support Command in the Office of the Deputy Commander-Operations. He then became the Maintenance Operations Officer and later Executive Officer of 694th Maintenance Battalion for three years. He left that position to become commander of the 363rd Quartermaster Battalion (Petroleum). He later commanded the 694th Maintenance Battalion.

Subsequent assignments included Intelligence and Operations Officer and later Support Operations Officer for the 172nd Corps Support Group at Logistics Support Area Anaconda, Iraq. In his third combat tour, he was deputy for operations at the Iraq Reconstruction Management Office, U.S. Embassy in Baghdad. In October 2005, while still in Iraq, he was selected to command the newly formed 208th Regional Support Group and served a total of 22 months in theater.

Major General Well's decorations include the Legion of Merit w/ 2 OLC's, Bronze Star Medal with OLC, Meritorious Service Medal w/ 2 OLC's, Army Commendation Medal w/ 3 OLC's, Combat Action Badge and Master Parachutist Badge.